MARKET NOTES

Continued "FROSTY" conditions across the lower states are affecting quality as well as price on certain commodities. Expect problems with:

Corn / Tomatoes / Eggplant / Beans / Zucchini & Squash / Citrus. Prices will be affected for 3 to 4 weeks.

Lots of rain is in the forecast for this week for much of Northern California. This may put a damper on some of the local crops.

TD Willey Bloomsdale Spinach is temporarily out of stock. Weather too cold in growing regions.
