VEGETABLES

ASPARAGUS - All out of Mexico. Sizing is not as uniform as local crop but quality has been good. There may be heat issues down the road.

BRUSSELS SPROUTS - California crop is steady. Sizing fairly uniform. Great roasted !!

CAULIFLOWER- Production out of Salinas has increased. Heads are nice , tight and heavy.

BROCCOLI- Harvest has increased which should keep prices steady. Broccolini and Broccoli Rabe both readily available.

CILANTRO - The market does vary from Oxnard to Salinas. there has been reports of yellowing and some dehydration. Also some black leaves intermixed in the bunches.

CELERY - Production is heavy out of Salinas. Increased volume should keep prices steady.

ONIONS - Severe heat is expected to reduce harvesting of Green Onions which means volume will be affected.

LETTUCE ROMAINE / ICEBERG / LEAF - Romaine & Romaine Hearts: Quality has been good with the occasional fringe burn.

Leaf - May start showing signs of heat damage with the upcoming harvests.

Beans

Organic French , Yellow Wax and Romano Beans are available but subject to what's on hand. Fresh Cranberry Beans have been very steady.

VEGETABLES / FRUITS

AVOCADO - Prices starting to creep up due to heat damage. Volume will decrease.

STONE FRUIT - CHERRIES...Washington crop winding down. Rainier Cherries limited. Excellent supplies of all stone fruit. Apricots, white & yellow peaches , white & yellow nectarines, and pluots / plums are currently available now.

CITRUS - Gold Nugget Mandarins and Blood Oranges are done for the season.

Orange - Late Lane Navels

Lemons - Switching over to Chilean

STRAWBERRY- Color and Flavor has been very good. Heat may have consequences down the road.

BLACKBERRY- Oxnard / Santa Maria has started production. Shipments have been steady. Good size berries.

BLUEBERRY- Shipments out of the Pacific Northwest have been very good.

RASPBERRY- CA has peaked. Volume will start to decrease out of Oxnard and Salinas.

MELONS - Cantaloupe: The offshore supplies are about done. The desert has been packing cantaloupes and volumes are increasing. The current market is lower on all sizes. Honeydew: The offshore dews are nearly finished and the desert is shipping dews. Watermelon: California supplies are nice and steady. Both Red and Yellow are available. Sugar level has been good.

Vegiworks will be OPEN on Monday the Fourth of July. Markets are closed so subject to what's on hand. Please pre-order any specialty or large quantity items the week prior so we can fill your order. Call your Sales Rep or our Office if there are any questions.
