ASPARAGUS - Quality has taken a dip. Low harvest numbers out of Mexico and Peru. Due to recent Hurricane activity in Baja.

BRUSSELS SPROUTS - Market has tightened up due to high demand.

EGGPLANT - Market is good on all varieties. Price steady.

ONIONS -

Green Onions: Harvest is down due to Heat and Hurricane damage. Supplies will remain light for the next week or two. Red Spring Onions are done.

LETTUCE ROMAINE / ICEBERG / LEAF -

Prices are steady across the board. Quality has been good.

Iceberg Lettuce - very good supplies

Broccoli / Cauliflower / Celery -

Supplies are good except for Broccoli which has tightened up. Prices are still very reasonable.

HARD SQUASH-

Butternut / Kabocha / Org. Delicata / Org. Red Kuri / Spaghetti Squash and Organic Sugar Pie Pumpkins all available.

SOFT SQUASH-

*Mixed Toybox Squash - done

VEGETABLES / FRUITS

SEASONAL FRUITS -

Persimmons - season has started but fruit is still on the green side..

Organic Lady Apples starting up.

Pluots - done

Yellow Peaches / Nectarines - finishing up.

AVOCADO -

Supplies continue to lag behind current demand. Shippers are having a hard time with ready fruit.

CITRUS -

Grapefruit - Quality diminishing quickly. Texas crop not expected until October.

Australian Blood Oranges on hand.

BERRIES

Blueberries: Quality is taking a big hit due to fruit out of storage. Prices will remain high.

Strawberries - quality has been very good. Berries are red and medium sized.

Raspberry / Blackberry - quality has been decent but lacking flavor.

MELONS -

Watermelon - low production is causing a short market.

Yellow Watermelon is done.

Honeydew and Cantaloupe - good quality and availability.

Varietal Melons - Down to Galia / Charantais / Crenshaw / Canary & Orange Honeydew

TOMATOES -

Only Mixed Heirlooms available. Not enough product for straight packs
